been able to see no indications of a tail. Prof.

Brooks thought he could observe one on the comet when he saw it. I can now see Indica-from the sun. The comet appears more condensed in the center, though not quite as large as when I first saw it. It is certainly a very great distance from the sun, or else it would throw off more tail. It is moving toward the sun faster than a degree a day now, and may get around on the other side of it, so as to be vis-ible in the evening sky. We can tell better about that when we get our exact computa-tions. I can now see indications of a double

MASKED BURGLARS FOILED .- Last Saturday night in Providence, R. L., three masked men broke into a large building occupied by manufacturing jewelers, having previously poisoned the dog on the premises, then seized and gagged the watchman, and compelled him to open the doors of Wm. Smith & Co.'s shop. There they spent three hours in an attempt to force the vault, in which was $6,000 in gold, but without

Work and Wages.

At Flushing, L. I., all the journeymen carpenters have struck for an advance of fifty cents. They have been receiving $2 a day. At Sayreville, N. J., eighty employes in Buck & Co.'s machine shops have struck for an advance of twenty-five cents per day. As yet no terms have been made. At Montreal it is feared that the labor troubles are only beginning. The wharf hands have decided to demand twenty, twenty-five, and thirty cents per hour Instead of fifteen, seventeen and a half and twenty cents, paid last year. The freight conductors on the Grand Trunk Railway applied on Sunday for ten per cent increase, which was granted Monday. The passenger conductors are now applying for a similar advance. The situation in regard to the Chicago switchmen's strike gives rise to fears that it may end in trouble. A CIRCUS CAUSES A STRIKE. Pelgram & Meyer, slik manufacturers of Paterson, N. J., claimed that the loss suffered by them through the absence of their mill hands on Friday, when Barnum's great snow was in town, amousted to $2 for each man who was absent. They proposed last Saturday to deduct $2 from the wages of those of their nands who had left their work on account of the circus. The men at once went on strike. The manufacturers say if the matter were left to business men the license fee for a circus would be $2,000 instead of $200. ONE CHILD ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY ANOTHER. ORANGEMEN'S INSCRIPTION REMOVED. - The Orangemen recently erected a monument in Mount Royal Cemetery, Montreal, to the memory of Mr. Hackett, who was murdered during the Orange and Green troubles in 1877, ling, by excepting "light wines, cider, beer and ales," the ex-President's order "prohibiting inthe inscription on which says he was "barbarously murdered by an Irish Roman Catholic mob." The cemetery authorities objected to these words, claiming that persons other than koman Catholics were engaged in the dis-turbance, and ordered their removal, which the ance, had an interview with President Garfield Orangemen refused to permit. Joseph Doutre, Queen's counsel and counsel for the Orangemen has decided that they had no right to put consent. He requested Mrs. Brown to make him a memorandum of the facts, and he would the words there, and they have been removed. The affair caused considerable excitement.

SMALL POX IN JERSEY CITY .- Edward Mc Carthy, who is afflicted with small-pox in its most virulent form, was refused admittance at the Charity hospital, driven out of the stationhouse, and left standing on a street corner in Jersey city, N. A BRIDE'S LEAP TO DEATH. - Last Thursday morning a woman leaped from the Girard ave-nue bridge into the Schuylkill river and was drowned. Her hat and vell, found floating in the water, were identified as the property of Mrs. Mary Patterson, a woman 23 years of age, who was married on Wednesday last, the day before committing suicide. She was highly re-spected, and her husband, John Patterson, was hosiery manufacturer. Her friends believe that the prospect of continued poor health and the excitement attending her marriage had affected her reason, and that the advertising pictures of a woman jumping from a bridge prompted the suicide. The body was recovered last Friday evening.

ACCUSED OF BALLOT-BOX STUFFING .- Peter N. W. Flynn, who at the recent charter election in Jersey City was an officer of election in the 2d precinct of the 4th district, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Garretson in the Hud-son county Court of General Sessions on an indictment charging him with ometal misconduct. It is alleged that he was detected in the act of dropping into the ballot box tickets which he had concealed in his sleeve. He pleaded not guilty, and in default of bail was committed to jail to await trial.-N. P. Sun, 9th.
